Mike and Karen,

We received some information regarding NBC's compliance with the Uniform Act in regards to taking property through eminent domain. We wanted to follow up with you regarding how you implement the Uniform Act generally and specifically any documentation on the process and legal proceedings around the property taking at 835 School St, Pawtucket, RI and 0 Nassau St., East Providence, RI. We would specifically like to understand the involvement of the Rhode Island State Properties Commission and its role in making such determinations and the record of decision or current proceedings in this case.

Thanks so much for any insight you can give.
